Company's multi-model platform under the identity and governance framework that has always defined it. the agent June 11, 2026 12.00 ET Source. AGNT, Inc. BELLINGHAM, Wash., June 11, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) AGNT, Inc. (Nasdaq. AGNT), the holding company for eXp Realty, NextHome, Inc., FrameVR.io and SUCCESS Enterprises (formerly known as eXp World Holdings, Inc.) (AGNT or the Company), today announced the completion of its corporate transformation, including the official renaming of the Company from eXp World Holdings, Inc. to AGNT, Inc. and the Company's redomestication from Delaware to Texas. The new name makes official what has defined the Company since its founding: an unwavering commitment to the success of independent real estate agents. Since adopting the AGNT ticker in May 2026, alongside the addition of NextHome to its platform, the Company has operated as a true multi-model enterprise, uniting distinct brands under a single, agent-centric holding structure. This transformation brings the Company's legal identity in line with that reality.
