NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Special Meeting of Stockholders (including any adjournments or postponements thereof, the LivePerson special meeting) of LivePerson, Inc., a Delaware corporation (LivePerson), is scheduled to be held on August 20, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time. The LivePerson special meeting will be held via a live audio webcast at www.virtualshareholdermeeting. com/LPSN2026SM. The LivePerson special meeting will be held for the following purposes, as more fully described in the proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this Notice:

to adopt the Amended and Restated Merger Agreement, dated July 2, 2026 (as it may be amended from time to time, the Merger Agreement), by and among LivePerson, SoundHound AI, Inc. (SoundHound), Lightspeed Merger Sub Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SoundHound (Merger Sub I) and Lightspeed Merger Sub II Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SoundHound (Merger Sub II), and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers (as defined below) (and such proposal, the merger proposal);

If the First Merger is completed, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, LivePerson stockholders will receive, in exchange for each share of LivePerson Common Stock, par value 0.001 per share (LivePerson Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time that the First Merger becomes effective (the First Effective Time) (other than certain excluded shares, including the TASE Shares (as defined below)) a number of shares of Class A common stock of SoundHound, par value 0.0001 per share (SoundHound Common Stock) to be calculated in accordance with the Merger Agreement and as further described in this proxy statement/prospectus (the Per Share Merger Consideration). If the Second Merger is completed, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, LivePerson stockholders whose shares of LivePerson Common Stock are held through the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange Clearing House Ltd. (TASECH) (such shares of LivePerson Common Stock, the TASE Shares) will receive, in exchange for each TASE Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time that the Second Merger becomes effective (the Second Effective Time) (other than any Dissenting Shares (used herein as defined in the Merger Agreement)) an amount of cash to be calculated in accordance with the Merger Agreement and as further described in this proxy statement/prospectus (the Per Share Cash Merger Consideration).

Fractional Shares
LivePerson stockholders will not be entitled to receive any fractional shares of SoundHound Common Stock in the Mergers, and no LivePerson stockholders will be entitled to voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional shares of SoundHound Common Stock. Each LivePerson stockholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of SoundHound Common Stock (after taking into account all certificates and book-entry shares delivered by such stockholder) in the First Merger will instead be entitled to receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional amount multiplied by (ii) the SoundHound Closing Stock Price.

Appraisal Rights
Appraisal rights are statutory rights that enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the transaction. Under Delaware law, appraisal rights are not available for the shares of any class or series of stock if the shares of the class or series are listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders on the record date, unless the stockholders are required to receive in exchange for their shares anything other than shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation or of any other corporation that is publicly listed or held by more than 2,000 holders of record, cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depositary receipts or any combination of the foregoing.

Shares of LivePerson Common Stock are listed on the Nasdaq as of the record date, and LivePerson stockholders other than holders of TASE Shares will receive SoundHound Common Stock pursuant to the First Merger. Given that the holders and beneficial owners of shares of LivePerson Common Stock that are not TASE Shares will only be entitled to receive shares of SoundHound Common Stock as a result of the First Merger (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares) and such persons will neither be required nor have the right to receive cash for their shares of LivePerson Common Stock (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares), stockholders and beneficial owners of shares of LivePerson Common Stock that are not TASE Shares will not be entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the shares of LivePerson Common Stock they hold in connection with the Mergers. Only LivePerson stockholders who (i) continuously hold or beneficially own shares through the TASECH from the date of making the demand through the Second Effective Time, (ii) do not vote in favor of the merger proposal, (iii) properly demand appraisal of such shares, (iv) otherwise comply with the procedures of Section 262 and (v) do not withdraw their demands or otherwise lose their rights of appraisal will be entitled to seek appraisal of such TASE shares in connection with the Second Merger.

Due to the complexity of the appraisal process and the procedures to be followed to properly demand and perfect appraisal rights, if you hold or beneficially own TASE Shares and are considering exercising your appraisal rights in respect of such shares, we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in Section 262 may result in the loss of your appraisal rights.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers
The exchange by a Holder (as defined below under the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers beginning on page 104) of shares of LivePerson Common Stock for cash or shares of SoundHound Common Stock (and the receipt of cash in lieu of any fractional shares of SoundHound Common Stock) pursuant to the Mergers is intended to be treated as a taxable sale for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A U.S. Holder (as defined below under the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers beginning on page 104) generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the cash received, or the fair market value as of the Closing Date of the SoundHound Common Stock received (including any cash received in lieu of any fractional shares of SoundHound Common Stock), as applicable, and (ii) the U.S. Holders adjusted tax basis in its shares of LivePerson Common Stock.

A U.S. Holders gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if such U.S. Holders holding period in such shares of LivePerson Common Stock exceeds one year as of the Closing Date. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder (as defined below under the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers beginning on page 104) upon exchange of shares of LivePerson Common Stock for cash or shares of SoundHound Common Stock (and the receipt of cash in lieu of any fractional shares of SoundHound Common Stock), as applicable, pursuant to the Mergers generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless such Non-U.S. Holder has certain connections to the United States.

For a more detailed discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers, you should read the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers in this proxy statement/prospectus. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences of the Mergers to you, including tax reporting requirements, and the applicability and effect of any U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. tax laws.
